

Chief Kevin R. McQuaid
Brook Park Police Department
President 2011, First Half

It truly has been an honor to serve as president of the Cuyahoga County Police Chief's Association. I have enjoyed my years as a member and my years on the Board of Directors. I believe we made great strides in developing a relationship with the new county government in 2011 that will continue over the coming years.

The strength of this association remains the members. It is amazing to be part of an organization for over eight years and have every contact with a fellow member be positive. Many of the new chiefs have commented to me about the support they have received from the members of this organization.

I would like to thank all the members of the association and especially the members of the Board of Directors for their assistance. I wish each and every one of you all the best in the coming years and again thank you for this opportunity.

Chief Clayton A. Harris
Cuyahoga Community College Police Department
President 2011, Second Half

CCPCA is off to a new season and new beginnings, as I step into the role of President for the next one and half years, I am excited and honored to lead the Cuyahoga County Police Chief's to higher heights, new initiatives and re-investment strategies into the CCPCA members and the community.

This year we have lots of exciting work to do together; we will be enhancing all of our programs, creating new corporate and community relationships, participating in community activities, building a strong membership and implementing new programs and initiatives. I am committed to enhancing the CCPCA brand and establishing a greater footprint in the community.

CCPCA has made extraordinary accomplishments, with Amber Alerts, Blue Coats, Crime Stoppers, Urban Area Work Groups, and many other initiatives that make this organization outstanding. As the new President, I am calling on all CCPCA members to join me in the continued efforts to make this the finest Police Chief's Association in the country. In order to accomplish this task, I will need not only your support but your participation in the success of this organization.

You have made an investment in CCPCA because you believe in its efforts and success. I am asking for all of you to join me in making 2011 a very prosperous and effective year for CCPCA; let's ensure a high return on your investment.

CCPCA is a great organization and will be even a greater one in 2011 and 2012.
